Nice meeting you!

MINI SEEDS' TEAM

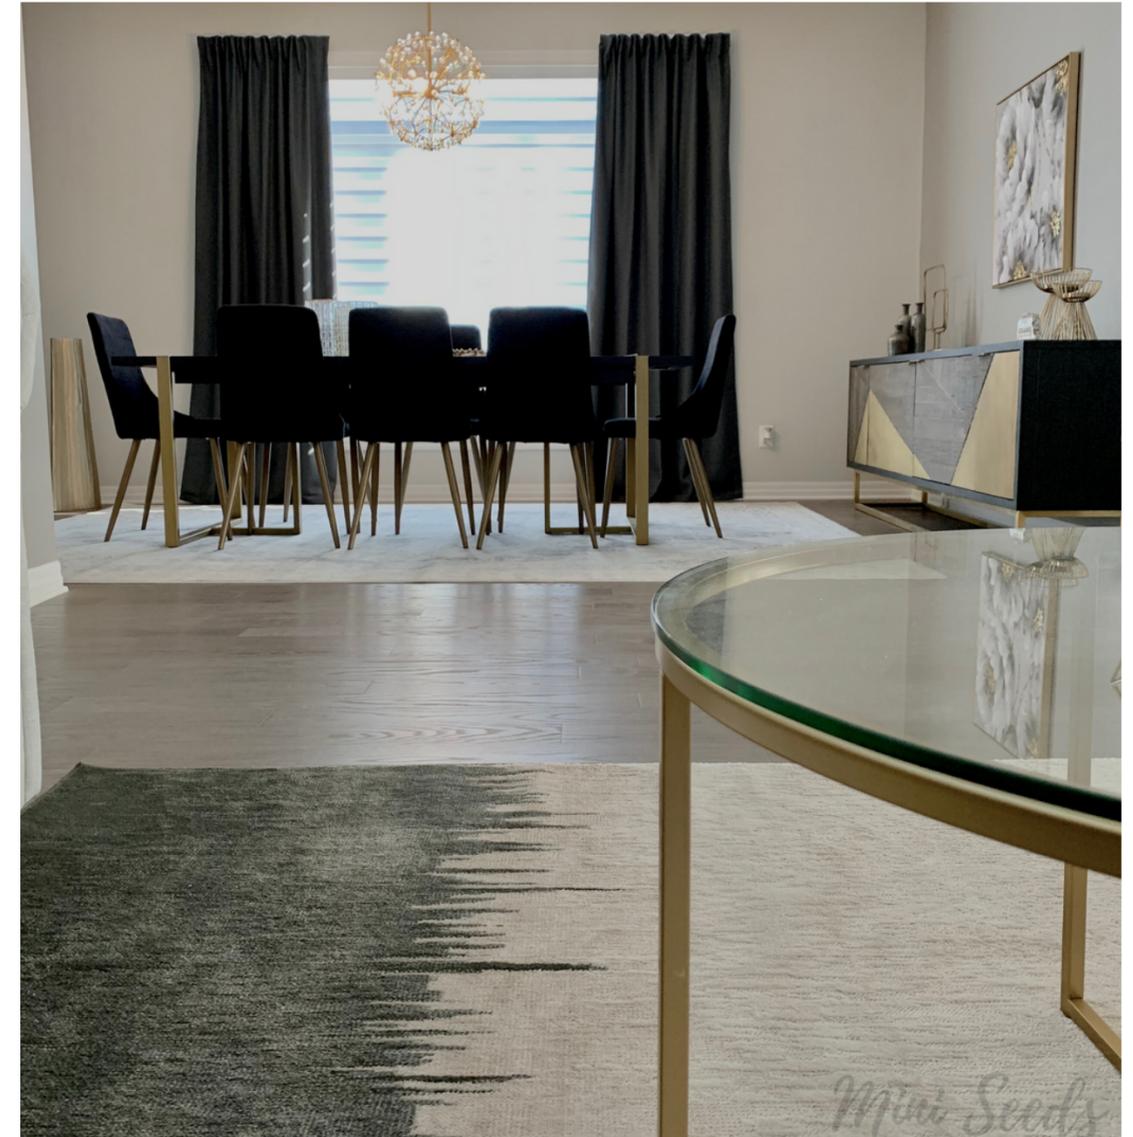

Dear Chi-Chi

Thank you for choosing Mini Seeds and the opportunity to work with you.

I'd be more than happy to offer your clients friendly efficient interior services that would extend the excellent service you provide them.

Our team has year of work experience and we're happy to be your first step towards the best interior that is fun, creative functional and practical to you and your lifestyle.

Where our passion
meets your needs

It's always a pleasure to meet our clients in their homes starting new exciting projects with them. We certainly believe that interiors have a big impact on our behaviour and wellbeing and are honoured to be able to work with you and help you through this process to transform your interior

We work with homeowners and business owners who value a well done interior design but lack the time to focus or even know where to begin to help them get the design plan figured out, help them make confident design and budget decisions.

With our very organized process and system, and by working with an excellent professional team we will layout the goal, the vision, the budget and the timeline to ensure the project's success.

06 Styling and decoration

We always like to start with an initial meeting

Once we're connected with your client we will be communicating to get to know them, their needs and dreams.

We then meet on-site for the initial consultation where we dive in solutions, ideas, and inspirations.

What to expect next

01

Building upon the initial meeting.

We will follow up with sketches, recommendation, actionable steps on how to tackle the decor challenge.

They get to Decide

02

At this point, they could be done, the problem is figured out and they can go on their own.

If the space needs more complicated work that we can handle for them, they can hire us back to finish the work.

We start with a proposal and take it from there.

03

We offer you a proposal, so they can make an informed decision when they hire our team to complete your project.

We would love to continue working with YOU!

Thank you again for trusting us and looking forward to working with you in the future.
